The gurney chisselled it's way
 Through the hubbub of dismay
 The forlornness in those hazel eyes
 Smear'd my gauntlet with sweat and ice
 With exiguousness in every breath
 He seeks abundance in existence
 He suddenly clutches my hands
 Imprinting lines on my heart,
 His beseech ingress my armor
 While assurances cease beneath the visor
 The monitors though glint
 Yet reflect gloomy hint
 Shriek ostentatious sound
 Amidst I stand null and void
 The chasm inside ripping apart
 As the bulwark in me withers afar
 Horrendous tales of agony and demise
 Exsanguinating shackles prevent my rise
 Oh I pine for my child's warmth
 And miss the caresses of lover's arms
 I so long to adorn ritzy dreams

And savour the solace serene
 My sense fails to prevail
 Raison de'tre dusty and daze
 Bhagwad Gita but beckons
 Selfless 'karma' is the norm
 Lost in mirage like Arjuna
 Can't be chagrin to my Krishna
 So Corona dare not muddle my emotion
 Subsर्वience to oath is my inclination
 I am a soldier sturdy in infirmity
 Pleading groans entrust my humanity
 This is destiny's moment opportune
 Making flowers of faith and optimism bloom
 Bring back love, joy and smiles
 For my honey... And those HAZEL EYES...
